

- ☐ Weather
- ☐ News
- ☐ Sports
- ☐ CW Lexington
- ☐ Livestream

Home / Local / Article

Mysterious Lexington pig captured and taken to new home

Richmond Police name twin brothers as suspects in weekend murder

Man killed in McCreary County crash

Fayette Mall to be closed on Thanksgiving day

Pike County man reunites with family after crash on USS John S. McCain

Report: Disability enrollment up 250 percent over 35 years

By WKYT News Staff | Posted: Wed 12:15 PM, Jul 05, 2017 | Updated: Wed 1:07 PM, Jul 05, 2017

LEXINGTON, Ky. (WKYT)- The mysterious “on the run” pig has been captured in Lexington.

The pig was first spotted on Monday wandering in the Benwood Drive and Strader Drive area, off Winchester Road.

He was first spotted by Valli Givens who runs Meals on Wheels at Trinity Baptist Church. She spotted the pig the same day they were serving pulled pork.

According to Diana Schaffner, from Good Acres Sanctuaries in Lawrenceburg, a private citizen put out a humane trap Tuesday night in the area where the pig had been spotted in Lexington. Neighbors kept an eye on the trap, and saw the pig in it

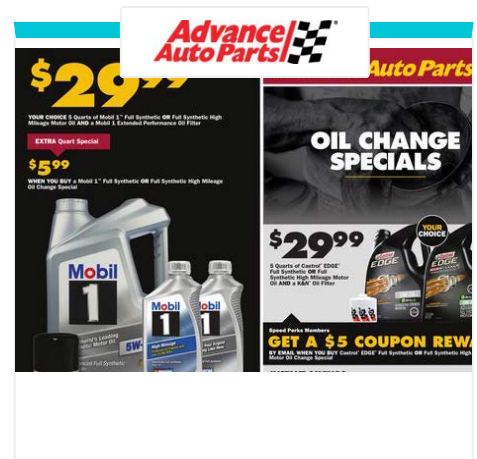

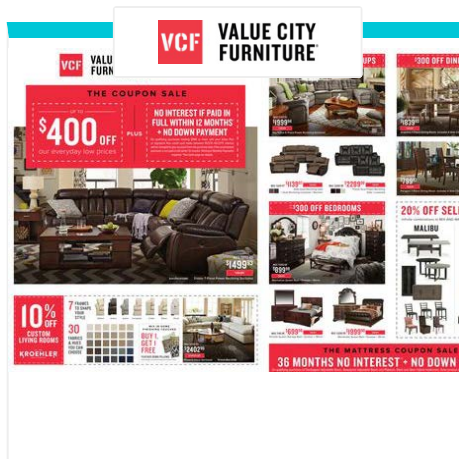

Wednesday morning.

Good Acres Sanctuaries was the organization's farm in Lawrenceburg, where Diana says he can live for the rest of his life.

The sanctuary is now having a contest to name their new member. You can submit a name by tweeting the name to @GAsanctuaries.

Man killed in McCreary County crash

This Week's Circulars

Comments are posted from viewers like you and do not always reflect the views of this station.

Weather

News

Sports

Community

Contact Us

Newsletter

Weather Headlines

UK Sports

Recipes

News Team

Closings & Delays

UK Sports Video

Contests

Jobs at WKYT

High School

Lottery

Advertise With